

Official Campaign Biography

Louisiana State Senate Candidate, Byron Hansley Jr.

Long Form

Byron Hansley Jr. is a proud Louisianian, Ascension Parish math teacher, public affairs professional, and community advocate dedicated to creating a stronger future for the people of Louisiana Senate District 18.

Raised with a deep appreciation for faith, family, hard work, and service, Byron has spent his life committed to uplifting communities and building bridges between people from all walks of life. His passion for leadership and public service has guided both his professional journey and his vision for the future of Louisiana.

Byron earned his Master of Public Administration from Louisiana State University, where he focused on leadership, public policy, and organizational management. His educational background, combined with years of hands-on experience in public affairs, civic engagement, and public outreach, has prepared him to effectively advocate for the needs of all families and local communities.

Throughout his career, Byron has worked across state and congressional offices, supporting constituent services, digital communications, strategic messaging, and community engagement initiatives across Louisiana. Today, he also serves as a math teacher in Ascension Parish, where he sees firsthand the promise, challenges, and potential of the students and families who call this region home.

Known for his approachable leadership style and strong commitment to service, Byron believes that government should be accessible, transparent, and responsive to the people it serves. His campaign for State Senate is centered around practical, forward-thinking solutions that prioritize economic growth, educational opportunity, infrastructure improvements, healthcare access, and safer communities.

Byron is especially passionate about empowering the next generation of leaders and ensuring that every resident — regardless of background, zip code, or income — has the opportunity to succeed. He believes District 18 deserves leadership that listens, collaborates, and works tirelessly to deliver real results.

Grounded in faith and driven by purpose, Byron remains committed to serving the people of District 18 with integrity, compassion, and determination.

His vision is simple: one district, united by opportunity, progress, and a shared commitment to building a better future together.
