

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Byron Hansley, Jr. Launches Campaign for Louisiana State Senate District 18

Newly announced candidate pledges to bring practical, people-centered leadership to Ascension, Livingston, and St. James parishes.

PRAIRIEVILLE, La. (August 4, 2026) — On yesterday evening, Byron Hansley, Jr., a resident of St. James officially launched his campaign for Louisiana State Senate District 18 on Monday evening during a press conference at The Vault Event Center in Prairieville. Surrounded by family, friends, community leaders, and supporters, Hansley outlined a clear vision for moving the district forward through responsive leadership, stronger communities, and expanded economic opportunity.

District 18 encompasses diverse communities across Ascension, Livingston, and St. James parishes. Hansley emphasized that his campaign will center on a listening-first approach, developing practical solutions to address affordability, economic growth, public health, and the everyday issues impacting local families.

“District 18 deserves leadership that listens, brings people together, and stays focused on results,” Hansley said. “I am running because I believe in the people of this district and in what we can accomplish when every community has a voice. This campaign is about moving forward—together—and building a future where every family has the opportunity to thrive.”

Hansley closed the evening with a call to action, inviting residents across all three parishes to visit the newly launched campaign website to get involved, share their unique priorities, and help shape a grassroots platform.
